

SYMPHONY NUMBER ONE

Jordan Randall Smith, Music Director

Emmanuel Episcopal Church

Thursday, September 24, 7:30pm

Sunday, September 27, 3:00pm

PROGRAM

Symphony No. 4 (1900)

- I. Bedächtig, nicht eilen (Moderately, not rushed)
- II. In gemächlicher Bewegung, ohne Hast (Leisurely, without haste)
- III. Ruhevoll, poco adagio (Peacefully, somewhat slowly)
- IV. Sehr behaglich (Very comfortably) "Das himmlische Leben" (The Heavenly Life)

55 Minutes

Gustav Mahler

(1860-1911)

Arr. Erwin Stein

Amanda Williams, Soprano

-Interval-

Concerto for Alto Saxophone and Chamber Orchestra (WORLD PREMIERE)

- I. Prologue and Concertante
- II. Dialogue, Toccata, and Remembrance

30 Minutes

Andrew Boss

(b. 1988)

Sean Meyers, Saxophone

PERSONNEL

Violin

Nicholas Bentz

Concertmaster

Christopher Ciampoli

Viola

Dorothy Couper

Anna Bross

Cello

Joe Isom

Contrabass

Kassie Ferrero

Assistant Conductor

Michelle Rofrano

Flute

Sarah Eckman McIver

Oboe

Emily Madsen

Clarinet

James Duncan

Bassoon

Kika Wright

Horn

Selena Adams

Percussion

Nehemiah Russell

Chris Salvito

Piano, Keyboard

Elizabeth Hill

Selena Adams

Michelle Rofrano

Library

Peter Morey

Kassie Ferrero

Photography

Maitreyi Muralidharan

Audio Engineering

Charles Street Sound

Production

Christopher Ciampoli

Jonathan Hugendubler

Board Membership

Jessica Abel

Nicholas Bentz

Gerard Burns

Christopher Ciampoli

Stephen Czarkowski

Joel Puckett

Melissa Lander

Delip Rao

Barry Richmond

Jordan Randall Smith

2015-16 Composers

Andrew Boss

Mark Fromm

Nicole Murphy

Andrew Posner

Jonathan Russell

Special thanks to ARTIST Music Center and our founding sponsors for bringing Symphony Number One to life.

Join us October 17&18 for the Music of Dvořák, Schoenberg, and a world premiere by Nicole Murphy.

For more information on our 2015-16 Inaugural Season, visit www.symphno1.org